This luxury detached villa could be your ideal holiday home especially for those who have a passion for golf as it is located within the fabulous Bonalba Golf course. The property is located within a gated community just a few minutes' walk to the Golf club, bars and restaurants. The house is set within its own private plot of 512m² having a private parking space, terrace around the 7m x 3m private swimming pool, artificial grass and high hedges around the border to make it a very private space. Having a southerly orientation to the rear, the garden receives sunshine most of the day and throughout the year. This intimate garden is perfect for you and the family to relax and enjoy with several sun beds, chill out...
